2 OMG LASH INNOVATIONS

Think you know mascara?
Think again. The new generation of magic wands are taking lashes to the next level...

The Little Black Primer
£20 esteelauder.co.uk. Not only does this primer make your mascara waterproof, last longer,
curl better and smudge
less, but it also tints and conditions the lashes.

Roller Lash £19.95 benefitcosmetics.co.uk. No need for eyelash curlers
– this nifty wand hooks, lifts,
separates and thickens every lash.

TIP

"Make sure the lashes at the outer corners are styled upwards – not outwards
– then use the tip of the
wand to push each lash
into place." Lee Pycroft, make-up artist

BEST IN SHOW(ER)

Chronologiste Revitalizing Shampoo
£23 Kérastase. This is as luxe as it gets – no matter your hair type, this shampoo adds shine with caviarinspired pearls. It's the closest you can get to a salon hair-wash at home.

BEST BAD HAIR DAY HACKS

BALMAIN

"Dispense a good amount of wet-look gel into your hands and run your fingers through your hair to distribute the product evenly, slicking it back from your face. Secure with grips behind your ears."

CALVIN KLEIN

"Create a high ponytail then twist it around the base and secure with pins, leaving the ends loose. Apply a little gel to the crown with a brush, but stick to salt spray on the bun itself, creating two different textures."

BORA ASKU

"Apply salt spray from root to tip. Create a low side parting and on the opposite side, tie a ponytail at the nape of your neck. Secure another band three inches from the ends, then rough up the texture with your fingertips."

The catwalk was full of easy cheats to make a hair DON'T into a chic hair DO, according to Philippe Tholimet, Josh Wood Atelier stylist.
